Holy Trinity Belle Vue

This week at HTBV

Today we welcome Paul Thomas, the Archdeacon of Salop. He'll be speaking at our morning service, and we'll be sharing communion together. We're stepping away from our series "Blessed to be a Blessing", with readings 1 Timothy 6:6-19 and Luke 16:19-31.

Coming up Soon

Our next Messy Church is on Sunday 2nd October from 9am. Do please pray for a great time. Fi and the team are still looking for people to help coordinate breakfast for this. Please speak to her if you may be able to do this. At 10.30am we'll then have our morning gathering in the front hall.

New Play Assistant

Pre-school are currently recruiting a new play assistant (Level 3) for two days a week. Know anyone? Put the word out. More details on website or from Pre-school.

Praying for each other

We seek to be a church where praying with each other - and for each other - is a really natural part of how we do life together. You're invited to an evening on Monday 3rd October at the Trinity Centre between 7.30 and 9.30pm, and be hosted by Alistair and Louise Magowan alongside Phil, Fi and other members of the team. Whether for the first time or as a refresher in 'prayer ministry' training we would love to welcome you.

Autumn Alpha Course

Many of us will be familiar with the Alpha Course. The next course starts on Wednesday 5th October, 7pm in the Trinity Centre Meole Brace. This is a really practical introduction to the Christian faith. Do you know someone who you might invite and bring with you? Or can you join the hospitality or prayer team, and put "faith into action"? Chat to Phil or Fi for more details, or go to www.trinitychurches.org/alpha
