Holy Trinity Belle Vue

This week at Holy Trinity Belle Vue

Today we continue our series called "Blessed to be a Blessing", and these amazing words about how the Lord might "bless us and keep us" in our lives. Our readings are 2 Chronicles 7:11–22 and Luke 7:36–50. We hope each week serves as a reminder that God blesses those who don't deserve it, through those who don't deserve it. And we can share that blessing with many others in our daily lives.

Our speaker this week is Phil Cansdale.

Finance at Belle Vue

As a PCC we recognise some significant challenges we face as a smaller church, as well as the concerns many households are facing with the rising cost of living.

Jesus often spoke about money and showed us what it really means to be generous. Giving is an act of faith and part of our discipleship, both a privilege and a responsibility for all God's people.

We also want to remind people that there is the "Belle Vue Relief in Need" fund which might be able to offer support and assistance to those connected with the church or the parish who are struggling. If you would like more information please speak to one of the wardens, Fi or Phil.

Shrewsbury Street Pastors

There's currently an acute shortage of Street Pastors in town. You're invited to a meeting to find out more about their work - and potential to get involved - on Wednesday 19th October at 7.30 at Barnabas Community Church. Here you will be given some short presentations on what it's like to be a Street Pastor, details of the training process that will be provided and the level of personal commitment you can expect. In addition, there will be an opportunity to ask questions and talk to current Street Pastors.

For further information please contact Steve Jones on 07890 728554 or email director.shrewsbury@streetpastors.org.uk
